LPEA open community meeting to be held in Pagosa Springs, Mar. 24 CEO Mike Dreyspring wants to know, “What’s on your mind?”

DURANGO, Colo. – La Plata Electric Association (LPEA) Chief Executive Officer Mike Dreyspring and representatives from the LPEA Board of Directors will host a special open community meeting Tuesday, Mar. 24, 2015, in the south conference room of the Ross Aragon Community Center, 451 Hot Springs Blvd., Pagosa Springs. The meeting will begin at 6 p.m.

“Thank you for allowing me, and LPEA, to serve you, our members,” said Dreyspring, who took the helm at LPEA in September 2014 with an open door policy for all co-op members. “We would love to meet with you and just hear what’s on your mind. How is LPEA doing in serving you? What concerns you most about your energy needs? How can LPEA improve its service to our members in Archuleta County?”

The meeting is informal and open to all members with any questions, comments and concerns. For further meeting information, contact Laura Rome, 970.382.3508.

LPEA, a Touchstone Energy Cooperative established in 1939, provides to its more than 30,000 members, with in excess of 42,000 meters, safe, reliable electricity at the lowest reasonable cost, while being environmentally responsible.
